REACH DECLARATION

Under the REACH regulations, Advanced Interconnections is a producer of articles for sale. These articles may be exported directly to the European Union or they may eventually be included in other products exported to the European Union. With the exception of N,N-dimethylacetamide, we declare that all articles manufactured by Advanced Interconnections and all packaging materials contain less than 0.1%, per supplied article, of the substances listed below and also meet restrictions described under REACH Annex XVII.

In some of our products, we use a polyimide film that may contain up to 1.0% N,N-dimethylacetamide.
